Lent:

(March 5 – April 19)

Purple is used during the penitential season of Lent as a vivid reminder of the contempt and scorn Jesus endured, and the subsequent sacrifice he made for our eternal salvation. It reminds us of our daily need to humbly give attention to leading a life of repentance.

The length of the Lenten season is forty days, which includes six Sundays. The season begins on Ash Wednesday.

Music during Lent is reflective of the season's focus on repentance and mercy. There are no "Alleluia" or "Glory to God in the Highest" verses sung in the liturgy during Lent. Fasting is practiced by some of the faithful during the Lenten season.

Pastor Mark's Remarks for March 2025

"Transformed by Spending Time with God"

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. 2 Corinthians 3:17-18

Religion says we need to transform ourselves to be able to enter into God's presence. The Kingdom of God says we spend time in God's presence now, as we are, so we can be transformed by his presence.

The season of Lent is a time of preparation and spiritual discipline, but many of us have the wrong understanding of Christian discipline. It is not a bunch of exercises we do on our own to be worthy of being with God in the future. It is intentionally spending time with God now so he can make us more able to live the life he created us to live for others.

I will likely fast during Lent. In the past I saw fasting as something I did so God would look down on me with approval for my sacrifice. I now see it as a reminder that his presence with me is more important than anything else in life and I want nothing distracting me from him.

I will likely do deeds of service in Lent. In the past I saw good deeds as things I did so God would look down on me with approval for my work. I now see acts of service as opportunities to experience God in my neighbor and experience God's love and gifts working in and through me as I serve.

I will likely address some of my character defects during Lent. In the past I saw working on myself as something I did on my own while God looked down at me with approval. Now I invite God into my character defects and experience him healing me and making me freer and more alive as I spend time with him.

Discipline for a God watching from a distance is not Christian discipleship. Spending time with a God who is with me and lives in me so he can transform me as we travel life together is real Christian discipleship.

Jesus, I don't want to perform for you, I want to spend my life with you. I don't want to fix myself for you, I want to invite you to heal me from the inside out. I don't want to work on myself to make myself worthy of you, I want to spend every moment with you so you can make me ready to live the life you created me to live. For your glory and for the good of my neighbors. AMEN
